

FILM AND FOOD

Thurs December 28th Tommy's Honour 6.30 for 7.00

Scotland 2017 Dir: Jason Connery Cert: PG 112 mins
Jack Lowden, Peter Mullan, Ophelia Lovibond, Sam Neil

Once this film was released it chose itself for this year's Film and Food. The true story of the founders of modern golf set in St Andrews Fife. The film tells of the stormy relationship between Tom Morris (Mullan) and his son Tommy (Lowden)

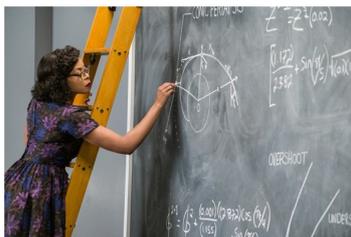

Both being exceptional golfers, their success and personal tragedy along with Tommy's growing fame and independence tests the father son relationship to the limit. Mullan, as usual, is outstanding but Lowden matches him for screen presence.

This screening falls outwith the membership and tickets will be available at the box office on film nights. As well as the film the audience will be served a three course meal before the screening prepared by Dave and Karen McCormack.

One day in 2005 while searching for food nine year old Phiona Mutesi an illiterate slum child follows her brother to a dusty veranda where she meets Robert Katende. Robert works for a Christian mission teaching the slum children chess and giving them a hot meal. Chess is so foreign to Ugandan culture there is no word for it in their language. Phiona however shows remarkable talent for the game. This true story of one girl's determination to overcome incredible odds is nothing short of inspirational.

Oct 27th Macbeth 7.30

USA / UK / France 2015 Dir Justin Kurzel
Cert 15 117 mins Genre: Drama
Michael Fassbender, Marion Cotillard, Jack Madigan, Paddy Considine

The Scot's play has never seemed so real and so dark. Shot on the Isle of Skye and with a remarkable performance by Marion Cotillard as Lady Macbeth the film is a cinematic feast. Adam Arkapaw (Lore) is the director of photography and he invests the film with an epic scale reminiscent of Kurosawa's Ran. But at the centre is Michael Fassbender's towering performance of an unnerved and unnerving Macbeth.

Joining forces with the rugby team captain Francois Pienaar (Matt Damon) he chooses the Rugby World Cup as a stage to make a statement about reconciliation. But black South Africans hate the Springboks and the team can't win.....

Dec 8th Easy Street & Sherlock Jr 7.30

USA 1916 / 26 Dir: Charles Chaplin / Buster Keaton
Cert: U 23 mins & 47 mins Genre: Silent Comedy
Charles Chaplin, Edna Purviance, Buster Keaton, Kathryn McGuire

Our first double feature Easy Street one of Chaplin's classic Mutual 2 reels has the Tramp as a reluctant policeman on the very tough Easy Street. Sherlock Jr is Keaton's most imaginative almost surreal, comedy. As deadpan as ever he plays a projectionist who dreams of being a detective. This performance will be accompanied by live musical accompaniment on the piano by Mr. Michael Nolan.
